Democrats Do Your Duty.

One week from today the Democrats will be called to the polls to do their duty by the party. Let every Democrat bear in mind that the stamp under the rooster means one vote more toward better government in city and state affairs.

In the face of a heavy Democratic majority in the regular registration which is increasing at the special registration do the Republicans hope to win? Their candidates for Council must depend upon a heavy Democratic vote to carry them over, but each Democrat that participated in the recent primary is pledged to lend his support to the party nominees.

The only chance for the Republicans to secure a seat in the Council lies in the Third Ward, but if the Democrats will vote as they have pledged themselves, this ward will go to the Democratic candidate.

There is no necessity in scratching the ticket to cast a vote for a Republican, or to give this party a chance to control the affairs of the city. Under Democratic rule the town has prospered and grown, and the affairs of the city, in competent hands, are well managed. Although the Republican platform pledges the party to work miracles along the line of progressiveness and good government there is little room for improvement over the past Democratic administrations.

Let every Democrat do his duty by himself and his party next Tuesday. Let the stamp under the rooster be a stamp of disapproval of the Republican party in the city and state election, and assist in rolling up a big majority for the Democratic candidates.

Condition Does Not Improve.

The condition of Mr. Will Hinton Davis, who has been removed from Danville to a Cincinnati hospital, is not encouraging, according to information received by relatives here. An X-ray examination of the portion of his foot which remains, revealed such a condition that softening of the bone is feared, and that would necessitate another operation which would be the sixth since his accident early in July.

Police Court.

In Police Court yesterday Fayette Nichols, colored, was fined $7.50 for drunkenness.

Don't Be Classed a Bolter.

A week from today is the regular state election. The Democrats never had a better chance to put the entire state into the hands of good men to manage the affairs of the people than now. Go to the polls and put your stamp under the rooster, play him straight, place and to show. Don't forget the city election as the Republicans have out a full ticket for Council. The city is largely Democratic and let's keep it that way, don't scratch your ballot, vote the straight ticket, even if there is some man on it you don't like personally. Don't be called a bolter.

New Goods Arriving.

Call on Mr. W. A. Beheler, the new proprietor of the Crystal Ice Cream Parlor and get a pound of fancy candy, or a box of cigars. He is receiving new goods daily and will be able to supply you with the best goods obtainable. Everything seasonable will be served at his soda fountain and his service will be up to the minute.

Democrats Lead in Registration.

The Democrats assumed a commanding lead in the first day of the special registration which is as follows: Democrats, 43; Republicans, 16; Independents, 1. Today will be the last day of the special registration for those who were ill or out of the city on October 3, regular registration day, to secure certificates that will entitle them to participate in the regular election on November 7.

Shooting Over Crap Game.

As a result of a quarrel during a crap game Saturday night "Chick" Fields, colored, shot and seriously wounded Raymond Brown. Fields has not been apprehended.

According to Brown the trouble arose during the game which was in progress in the rear of the coal chute in the South yards of the L. & N. Fields is alleged to have gone to his home in Claysville where he procured a shotgun. Returning he is said to have fired on Brown, the charge taking effect in his right hip, inflicting an ugly wound. Brown was taken to his home where his wound was dressed by Dr. D. B. Anderson. His condition is not regarded as serious.

McClintock Case Decided.

Yesterday at Lexington the McClintock case was before the Court again as to the custody of their infant child, Rachel McClintock; Mr. McClintock asking that the Court give him custody of the child for one half of the time. A great many witnesses from Paris and Lexington were called. The mother, Mrs. Maggie Rogers McClintock was given custody and control of the child all of the time. The Court directed Mrs. McClintock to board in Paris instead of Lexington, and gave the defendant, McClintock, privilege to visit the child three hours a day, or to take it elsewhere those three hours.

Success Apt to Dazzle.
There's a glare about success which is apt to dazzle men's eyes. When we see a man rising in the world, a foolish high opinion is formed of his merits. It is said, "What a wonderful man this must be to rise so rapidly!" forgetting that straw, dust, and feathers—things without value or weight—rise the soonest and easiest. It is not always the great and good man who rises rapidly into wealth and notice.

Trying to Fool the Tobacco People.

When Judge O'Rear gets into one of the tobacco counties he drops every other subject, and begins to shed tears over the wrongs of the tobacco growers. He dwells upon their oppressions, and denounces the wickedness of the tobacco trust, and promises that if he is elected Governor he will force the price of tobacco up to twelve cents, and makes many other pledges equally impossible of performance. One of his boldest statements is that if the tobacco trust does not pay the tobacco growers as much as twelve cents for their tobacco, that he knows a way to make them do it, and that if they refuse, he proposes to drive the trust out of the state and not permit them to do any business here.

Judge O'Rear claims to be the only friend that the tobacco growers have and that they can rely on him, and him alone, to lead them out of the wilderness of low prices and bad crops.

It is not possible that any intelligent tobacco grower can be influenced by any such demagogical appeals. They proceed from the inherent selfishness of the candidate who is badly in need of votes, and he proposes to get them by gilt-edged promises will do any good.

Kentucky is practically unanimous in its opposition to the oppression the tobacco trust has placed on the farmers of this state. Everybody denounces as little short of criminal the combination that will depress prices and oppress the hardest worked people on earth, to put more money into already bursting with riches. Everybody is grieved that tobacco prices in Kentucky have been too low, and it has been the concern of every fair-minded man to help bring this price to a level where the farmer can be paid a generous sum for his labors. So far as it has been possible a Democratic Legislature has answered every request of the tobacco growers by putting remedial legislation on the Statute book.

Governor McCreary has always been a friend of the tobacco people. He has helped them in the past, and he stands ready to do so in every possible way. If he is elected he will enforce the law against those who violate the Statute preventing a trust or combination to control prices, and will lend a helping hand to those who have suffered in the past from the criminal oppression of the trusts.

If Judge O'Rear knows any way to compel the tobacco trust to pay twelve cents for tobacco, he ought to communicate his secret to the Attorney General of the State who is a Republican, and to Governor Willson who is likewise a Republican, and let them put the machinery of the law into operation, so that the guilty will be punished, and the innocent will come into their reward.

If the present Republican administration cannot be trusted to pay twelve cents for tobacco, he ought to do what his party has persistently refused to do—grant relief to the sorely burdened tobacco growers.

The truth is O'Rear is no [more sincere on the tobacco question than he is on any of the many issues he has tried to drag into this campaign. He thinks he has found a cheap way to get votes, but the sensible tobacco men of the State will inspect that Trojan horse before they welcome him into their confidences.

The Difference.

The hen never drinks without looking up, whereas when men drink they can't look up.—St. Paul Dispatch.

McCreary's Effective Campaign.

Governor McCreary is closing the most remarkable campaign in his long public career. He has not given his Republican opponent a moment's rest, but has mercilessly arraigned him and his party until they have been on the defensive from the very beginning. Governor McCreary will end this contest in full mental and bodily vigor and will give the State such a progressive administration that the Democracy will not be out of power again in twenty years.

Reforms Begin at Home.

There is no doubt that ex-Senator Jack Oliver, who is the Republican candidate for Secretary of State, feels just as bitter as Judge O'Rear does on the subject of railroad passes. He is a great friend of the Constitution—sleeps with it under his pillow at night, and grieves when its provisions are neglected by the Legislature. In the meantime, however, Senator Jack blithely travels all over the State on railroad passes, and as he has made many trips with Judge O'Rear, that distinguished jurist must have personal information on the subject. Why does not Judge O'Rear begin his reforms at home and convince the members of his own family and his fellow candidates, that they should not engage in the discreditable practice of riding on railroad passes.

Louisville Republicans Shot to Pieces.

The Louisville Republicans are split into fragments. They first refused to nominate a ticket for the General Council hoping thereby to gain a few Democratic votes. The independent Republicans then put a ticket in the field, and at the last moment the Republican County Committee nominated a full ticket to head off the insurgents. Many of those thus named never heard of it until they saw their names in the papers. They are resigning so rapidly that it is impossible to fill their places before the lists close. Conditions in Louisville are so bad that Judge O'Rear must cancel other engagements in the State and will speak there in the hope of arousing some enthusiasm among his followers. The Democrats will carry Louisville by at least three thousand, and it may reach five thousand.

The Greatest Danger.

There is only one danger that the Democrats face and that is over confidence. To make Democratic success certain it is absolutely necessary that the vote should be gotten out. Every county chairman and every precinct committeeman is giving his personal time to this important work, and they should be aided by the individual Democrats. Take your neighbor to the polls with you, and there will be no doubt that the Democrats will win a glorious victory. If only five Democrats in every precinct in the State remain away from the polls it will mean a difference of over ten thousand votes. Republicans are active and determined, and are making desperate efforts to poll every vote. Vote early and urge all your friends to do likewise.

The First Thimble.

The thimble of plain sewing was invented in the year 1684 by a gallant young Dutch goldsmith of Amsterdam, who devised the "thumb-bell"—for this was its original name—in order to protect his sweetheart's thumb tips when she was engaged with a needle and cotton. The "thumb bell" has, however, become a "finger-bell," but in shape only little change has taken place in it since the loving Hans placed the first thimble on the thumb of this lady love.

Saved His Mother's Life.

"Four doctors had given me up," writes Mrs. Laura Gaines, of Avoca, La., "and my children and all my friends were looking for me to die, when my son insisted that I use Electric Bitters. I did so and they have done me a world of good. I will always prize them." Electric Bitters is a priceless blessing to women troubled with fainting and dizzy spells, backache, headache, weakness, debility, constipation or kidney disorders. Use them and gain new health strength and vigor. They're guaranteed to satisfy or money refunded. Only 50c at Oberdorfer's.

How He Voted.

At a church court a pastor had to vote on a delicate question. Either way would estrange some of his flock. So he voted "non liquet," which is equivalent to asking to be excused. The next day a country delegate was asked how this pastor had voted on the vexed question. He said: "The man did not seem pleased. In fact, he voted that he did not like it."

A Poor Weak Woman

As she is termed, will endure bravely and patiently agonies which a strong man would give way under. The fact is women are more patient than they ought to be under such troubles.

Every woman ought to know that she may obtain the most experienced medical advice free of charge and in absolute confidence and privacy by writing to the World's Dispensary Medical Association, R. V. Pierce, M. D., President, Buffalo, N. Y. Dr. Pierce has been chief consulting physician of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N. Y., for many years and has had a wider practical experience in the treatment of women's diseases than any other physician in this country. His medicines are world-famous for their astonishing efficacy.

The most perfect remedy ever devised for weak and delicate women is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

SAVAGES OF ASIA.

The Untamed Chites of Tibet Are Idolaters and Cannibals.

MURDER IN THEIR RELIGION.

At Their Wild Ceremonies the Priests of These Barbarians Offer Up Human Sacrifices to Their Grotesque and Repulsive Stone Gods.

A religious festival by a savage tribe of Asia, in which occurred a human sacrifice and the burning of the victim on a funeral pyre, is described by William Jameson Reid in his book, "Unexplored Asia." The rites were held in a place called Chite City, Tzu-chuan, which was reached after a hazardous journey through the Ping mountains. He says:

"Let me give a brief history of this strange race, who for centuries have defied the most persistent research of explorers and ethnologists. Many centuries ago, in the vicinity of Shanghai, there lived a highly enlightened race known as the Chites. They were the most fanatical and bigoted Buddhists, so fanatical, in fact, that their turbulent spirits and eager desire to sow the seed of proselytism caused frequent revolutionary disturbances. The government, as its only means of salvation, made war on them. For years the Chites battled against overwhelming odds until at last, their numbers fearfully reduced, they gradually retired to the west, settling here and there, only to be again driven back. After years of wanderings they located in the wild mountain region of northwestern Tibet.

"For untold centuries they have held entirely aloof from their more civilized Chinese neighbors, and today they are as untamed and barbarous as were their fierce ancestors. Many of them are savages of the worst degree; even cannibalism is said to be prevalent among many of them. They acknowledge no allegiance to the emperor, entirely ignore the authority of the mandarins and hold no communication with the outside world. Yet we have visited their wild domain; we have penetrated into their stronghold and have witnessed their strange customs.

"It had been our intention to steal into the city under cover of night, but from our position of vantage we could see that some religious demonstration was in progress, and we did not dare to move. For half an hour our guides (natives) crawled out on the plain and returned with the information that they had discovered a considerable cave in the hillside to the left of the town, which would screen us from observation and at the same time permit us to watch the movements of those inside the walls. We had just time to reach our place of concealment when the leaders of the procession entered the narrow orifice and halted while torches were being lit to guide their passages through the gathering gloom. Following them pressed the unkempt crew, until the interior of the dome shaped cave was filled to the point of suffocation.

"For half an hour the ear torturing strife of discord waxed louder at every moment until a hundred devils in human form flitted beneath the flare of flickering torches. A frenzied enthusiast would leap into the air, lacerating himself with a knife, grasping the gory strip of flesh and grinding it under his heel, or taunting a neighbor into the spirit of emulation by flaunting before his eyes the ghastly piece of flesh. Suddenly from out the compact mass rose a howl of mingled anguish and fury, and a solitary individual mounted a sort of platform and stretched forth his hand. Evidently he was a high priest. Instantly there was silence. The light of the torches enabled us to see the man who had mounted the platform. He was a tall, gaunt individual. All his right side was naked, and his face was covered with gaping rents of knife wounds, from which blood trickled.

"A garment of coarse cloth covered his body below the waist. Soon we saw five others follow him upon the platform, which was of raised earth. In a recess in the wall at the rear of the platform one could see the distorted form of a gigantic image—a stony, impassive figure of such grotesque ugliness that one could not help wondering how a race of people, however unenlightened, could bring themselves to worship an object of such repulsiveness.

"At last a fearful moment was at hand. An old man was seized and stretched upon a sort of stone altar, raised above the platform. He realized his last hour had come, and he struggled in fear and fury to escape from the grasp of his captors, giving vent to shriek after shriek until, exhausted, he fell into a stupor. Four of the priests held the faintly struggling body, while from the gloom stalked forth the sacrificial priest, his hand holding a long knife. Once, twice, thrice he abased himself before the image, and then, turning round like a beast ready to leap upon its prey, he rushed toward the prostrate form. A flash of light and the keen blade sank to the hilt in the flesh of the victim.

"Three times did the worshippers on the floor rise and abase themselves, and then quickly the minor priests seized the lifeless body and held it in the air. For a moment it silhouetted against the flaring of the fire; then the flames leaped forward in eager ecstasy to receive their prey."

FREE IF IT FAILS.

Your Money Back if You are Not Satisfied With the Medicine We Recommend.

We are so positive that our remedy will permanently relieve constipation, no matter how chronic it may be, that we offer to furnish the medicine at our expense should it fail to produce satisfactory results.

It is worse than useless to attempt to cure constipation with cathartic drugs. Laxatives or cathartics do much harm. They cause a reaction, irritate and weaken the bowels and tend to make constipation more chronic. Besides their use becomes a habit that is dangerous.

Constipation is caused by a weakness of the nerves and muscles of the large intestine or descending colon. To expect permanent relief you must therefore tone up and strengthen these organs and restore them to healthier activity.

We want you to try Rexall Orderlies on our recommendation. They are exceedingly pleasant to take, being eaten like candy, and are ideal for children, delicate persons and old folks as well as for the robust. They act directly on the nerves and muscles of the bowels. They apparently have a neutral action on other associate organs or glands. They do not purge, cause excessive looseness, nor create any inconvenience whatever. They may be taken at any time, day or night. They will positively relieve chronic or habitual constipation, if not of surgical variety, and the myriads of associate or dependent chronic ailments, if taken with regularity for a reasonable length of time. 12 tablets, 10 cents; 36 tablets, 25 cents; 80 tablets, 50 cents. Sold in Paris only at our store—The Rexall Store, G. S. Varden & Son.

ITCH! ITCH! ITCH!

Scratch and rub—rub and scratch—until you feel as if you could almost tear the burning skin from your body—until it seems as if you could no longer endure these endless days of awful torture—those terrible nights of sleepless agony.

Then—a few drops of D. D. D., the famous Eczema Specific and, Oh! what relief! The itch gone instantly! Comfort and rest at last!

D. D. D. is a simple external wash that cleanses and heals the inflamed skin as nothing else can. A recognized specific for Eczema, Psoriasis, Salt Rheum or any other skin trouble.

We can give you a full size bottle of the genuine D. D. D. remedy for $1.00 and if the very first bottle fails to give relief it will not cost you a cent.

We also can give you a sample bottle for 25 cents. Why suffer another day when you can get D. D. D.?

CAUSE AND REMEDY.

Uncertainty of the immediate future is looked upon by many men of affairs, as a blockade to enterprise and business prosperity, and this blockade is now quite apparent throughout the channels of trade.

The Presidential Election; the efforts of Congress with no fixed purpose; Organized Labor as a new factor in politics; together with other matters of greater or less import, represent at this time a chaotic conflict of separate interests, to harmonize which is now the problem before the country.

All want Prosperity, Peace and Plenty. Read with care the Cincinnati Enquirer, a journal that prints all the news each day from every commercial center throughout the world. A barometer of causes and effects that points out, as a Beacon Light, the danger and the safeguard therefrom.

As well known, the Daily Enquirer is the largest in size and highest priced paper in the United States, yet cheapest, measured by quality and quantity.

The Weekly Enquirer, with the cream and digest of all the news, able and conservative editorials, market reports, methods and results from Government and State Experiment Stations, veterinary matters, People's Forum, choice literature, short and continued stories, non-sectarian sermons, general information, etc., with the exclusion of all matters of scandal and immorality, is today the Cleanest Weekly Family Journal obtainable. SPECTER SHIPS.

Legends of Shadowy Craft of the New England Coast.

The coast of New England has numerous legends concerning specter ships firmly believed by the rugged fishermen, who assert stoutly that on various occasions glimpses of the shadowy craft have been seen, followed invariably by fatal disaster. The specter of the Palentine is occasionally seen on Long Island sound and is the forerunner of a gale of wind. She was a Dutch trading vessel and was wrecked off Block island in 1732. The wreckers, it is said, made short work of her, stripping her fore and aft and setting fire to the hull.

As she drifted blazing off the coast a human form was visible amid the flames, the form of a female passenger, left to perish on the doomed craft. Since and generally upon the anniversary of the wreck a phantom ship with blazing hull, charred spars and scorched sails and rigging has been seen cruising off Block island.

Whittier recorded the legend in graceful verse as well as that of a ghostly cruiser that sailed from a New England port of her last voyage, which he termed "The Dead Ship of Salem." In the seventeenth century a ship was about to sail from Salem to England. Her cargo was on board, sails bent and passengers on deck, when two passengers came hurriedly off and engaged passage. The couple were a young man and a young woman, who, so tradition records, were remarkable for their bearing and beauty.

Who they were or whence they came no one in Salem town could tell. The ship being detained by adverse winds, the mysterious couple excited the suspicions of the townspeople, who viewed them as uncanny and prophesied disaster to the vessel if allowed to sail in her. But the master, a bluff and stern sailor, refused to listen and finally departed on a Friday.

The vessel never reached her destination and was never spoken, but later in the year incoming vessels reported sighting a craft with luminous rigging and sails and shining hull and spars. She was sailing with all canvas set against the wind, with a crew of dead men standing in the shrouds and leaning over the rail, while upon the quarterdeck stood a young and beautiful couple.—New York Herald.

MAKING UMBRELLAS.

The Work of Assembling the Frames and Putting on Covers.

In most umbrella factories the task of turning out ribs and stems is left to other factories making a specialty of those parts. These are sent to the manufacturer, and the man whose work it is to assemble the parts inserts a bit of wire into the small holes at the end of the ribs, draws them together about the main rod and adjusts the ferrule.

In cutting the cloth or silk seventy-five thicknesses or thereabouts are arranged upon a table at which skilled operators work. In one department there are girls who operate hemming machines. A thousand yards of hemmed goods is a day's work for one of these girls. The machines doing this job attain a speed of some 3,000 revolutions a minute. After the hemming has been done the cloth or silk is cut into triangular pieces with a knife, as before, but with a pattern laid upon the cloth. The next operation is the sewing of the triangular pieces together by machinery.

The covers and frames are now ready to be brought together. In all there are twenty-one places where the cover is to be attached to the frame. The handle is next glued on, and the umbrella is ready for pressing and inspection.

By far the greater number of umbrellas today are equipped with wooden handles. A large variety of materials may, however, be used. Gold and silver quite naturally enter into the construction of the more expensive grades of umbrellas.

A wooden handle may be quite expensive, though, by reason of the wood used.—Harper's Weekly.

The Turning of the Worm.

"I guess it's true that the worm turned," growled the farmer boy to himself as he wearily twisted the handle of the grindstone round and round. "I've read it in the Third Reader at school, and I've heard it said time and again. I don't know whether he turned over in bed, or turned some different color, or turned out badly, or how the indignation he turned, but what I'm here to say is that if the worm turned the grindstone when he didn't have to be was a dum fool! There!"—Success Magazine.

On Schedule Time.

A young member of a certain family had the measles, and the family was quarantined. One of the little girls spoke from an open window to a neighbor inquiring into the state of her health:

"No, 'm," she said, "I haven't got 'em yet, but I expect to have 'em day after tomorrow."—Lippincott's.

A Bad Boy.

Bertie—I don't want to go to bed yet, sis. I want to see you and Mr. Shepherd play cards. Lucie—You wicked boy, to think we should do such a thing! We never do it! Bertie—But I heard mamma tell you to mind how you played your cards when Mr. Shepherd came.

A Smile.

A smile betrays a kind heart, a pleasant friend, an affectionate brother, a dutiful son, a happy husband. It adds a charm to beauty, and it beautifies the face of the deformed.

Gave Up Hope

"I suffered five years, with awful pains, due to womanly troubles," writes Mrs. M. D. McPherson, from Chadbourne, N. C. "They grew worse, till I would often faint. I could not walk at all, and I had an awful hurting in my side; also a headache and a backache.

I gave up and thought I would die, but my husband urged me to try Cardui, so, I began, and the first bottle helped me. By the time the third bottle was used, I could do all my work. All the people around here said I would die, but Cardui relieved me."

TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

For more than 50 years, Cardui has been relieving woman's sufferings, and making weak women strong and well. During this time, thousands of women have written, like Mrs. McPherson, to tell of the really surprising results they obtained by the use of this purely vegetable, tonic remedy for women.

Cardui strengthens, builds, restores, and relieves or prevents unnecessary pain and suffering from womanly troubles. If you are a woman, begin taking Cardui, today.

Your Wardrobe Isn't Complete

Without One of these Lovely Velvet Dresses

Their Artistic Appearance Places Them in a Class by Themselves and They're Invaluable For Many Functions.

No costume could be more refined and elegant in appearance than one of these rich velvet dresses. No garb can take the place for wear at afternoon entertainments or evening affairs. They are high in popular favor, and are the favored proteges of the metropolitan style-critics.

You'll be charmed with their attractive designs; you'll be delighted with the high quality of their materials; but you can not properly judge of their becomingness until you've tried them on and carefully examined them.

The infinite variety of models we're showing provides a handsome and becoming dress for every taste-preference—a style that will please even the most fastidious.

Dresses of Velvet and Corduroy
$17.50 to $35.

Elegant and refined garments are these in a variety of beautiful models. Colors are black; navy, brown and rich green. We have every size at present, but advise prompt selection as the assortment will soon be broken.

First Step Toward Next Conclave

Although the annual meeting of the Knights Templar of Kentucky for the coming year is just about seven months off, interest in the coming conclave is being manifested early and the 1912 conclave, to be held in this city, promises at this date to eclipse that held here five years ago, which was the most decided success from every standpoint of any held before or since.

The conclave was held in Lexington last May and it was decided that Paris should be the next place of meeting. Seldom does this body meet in the same city in so short a period and the selection of Paris after an elapse of five years is a compliment to the hospitality of the city and an attest of the high regard in which the Knights Templar throughout the State hold for Paris.

Preliminary plans looking to the holding of the conclave were laid at the stated meeting of Coeur de Lion Commandery last Friday night, when matters pertaining to the conclave were discussed. No definite action was taken at the meeting, but committees were named to boost the affair and make the conclave next May superior to that of five years ago.

It is the purpose of the local commandery to raise funds with which to entertain the visitors in a royal fashion. At the last conclave the commandery bore the entire expense but this year the citizens of Paris will be asked for liberal subscriptions with which to entertain the large number of visitors and it is needless to say that when the proper time to take such subscriptions rolls around the committee appointed to act in the capacity of solicitors will meet with a ready response from the merchants and citizens.

Paris wants the coming conclave to be the best and biggest ever held in the State. The honor conferred upon the town by the Grand Commandery shows that they appreciated our efforts to entertain the Knights and they want to come back. Unite in this effort and make the next annual meeting a grand success.

Mrs. Talbott Elected President.

The Richard Hawes Chapter U. D. C., held an important business meeting in their beautifully appointed Confederate room at the court house Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Claude M. Thomas gave a full and interesting account of the State Convention held in Lexington last week.

Mrs. Wm. G. Talbott presented to the chapter a piece of the bronze from which the equestrian statue of John Morgan was made; this was given to Mrs. Talbott by Mr. Coppini, the sculptor, and has been added to the very interesting cabinet of relics owned by the chapter.

The election of officers for the ensuing year resulted as follows: President, Mrs. W. G. Talbott; first vice president, Mrs. J. T. Vansant; second vice president, Mrs. C. M. Thomas; secretary, Mrs. Henry Clay; treasurer, Mrs. Thomas McDonald; registrar, Mrs. C. C. Leer.

Miss Puss Rogers, of Columbus, O., who lived in Paris during the Civil War, was a visitor and agreed to give an address at the next meeting, the third Friday in November.

New Saloon.

I will open a first class saloon on November 1, in my storeroom lately used by me as a clothing store. I have engaged Mr. E. H. Brannon as my head clerk. It will be my aim with the assistance of Mr. Brannon to conduct a first class and up-to-date place, selling nothing but the best of wines, liquors, old whiskies and beer. The celebrated John Hauck draught beer will be sold as well as other famous brands of bottled beer. Mr. Brannon's years of experience in this business has enabled him to know best as to the wants of the public in this line so I have left it to him as to the purchase of the whiskies, etc. We extend a most cordial invitation to the public to call on us and give us a share of its patronage.

May Go to January Term.

In the Court of Appeals at Frankfort Saturday in the merger case of Commonwealth on relation, etc., against L. & N. and Frankfort and Cincinnati railway, an agreement of attorneys was filed giving till December 5 to file a reply to the petition for rehearing which has been filed by the appellee. This will probably result in the final decision going over to the January term of court. The court decided at the last April term that the L. & N. could not buy or take over the Frankfort and Cincinnati because it is a competing line.

Control of Brands of the Trust.

It is expected that in the proceedings with reference to the plan of reorganizing the American Tobacco Company, which are to be entered upon in New York this week, a good deal of attention will be devoted to the question of brands of tobacco and their control by given plants.

This is in some way a new proposition, as it has received relatively little part in the criticism that has been visited upon the tobacco reorganization plan. It is a fact, however, that within the past two or three days Mr. Wickersham's advisers have strongly represented to him the desirability of taking some action in regard to this matter and of using it as one basis for his criticism of the proposals of the company.

That he will do so is now fully believed by those who have every reason to know what he is planning.

ANNOUNCEMENT

MADE THEM REMEMBER.

Customs of the Old English Court of Forest Regarders.

The great forests of England were for centuries royal property. They were kept from settlement and encroachment by the strictest laws and the severest penalties. To enforce the laws a great number of officials were appointed. There were wardens, verderers, foresters and regarders, and there were special courts to try cases of trespass, poaching and like offenses. It is of the regarders that Mr. Norway writes in his "Highways and Byways in Yorkshire." He is dealing with Sherwood forest of Robin Hood fame:

"I know not with any certainty what may have been the boundaries of this forest in ancient times, for that excellent custom of the court of the regarders has gone out of use, which was wont to impress the bounds so firmly on the memories of those who dwelt in the neighborhood.

"The regarders used to take a survey of the forest every third year, and in their train went a number of boys collected willy nilly from the immediate vicinity. The boys were chosen because it was held that the memories of the young are good. Yet it was found to be desirable to impress them firmly with the actual limits lest any wandering fancy should distract their attention at the important moment, and so the boys were bumped heavily upon the ground whenever the boundary was reached, or if the limit were a stream that was much better, for the urchins were thrown in and 'paddled about' until their attention was awake.

"Is that stream the boundary?" one of these witnesses was asked in his ripper age.

"Ees," he answered hastily, "ees, that 'tis. I'm sure o' by the same token that I were tossed into't and paddled about there like a water rat till I were haufe dead."

When Not to Smoke.

By exhausting the salivary secretion smoking before meals prevents the physiological action of the saliva on starchy foods. Smoking just before going to bed is often followed by insomnia, because the stomach contains a quantity of unneutralized juice, which irritates the mucosa and gives rise to a sensation of hunger. This distressing consequence may be averted by taking either some light food or a little bicarbonate of soda before retiring to rest in order to neutralize the secretion.—London Lancet.

Justification.

"You admit, then, do you, O'Shaughnessy, that you assaulted your friend?" asked the judge.

"Sure an' Oi do that, yure honor," replied O'Shaughnessy. "Oi gev him a couple o' good wans. He called me a dommed fool, yure honor."

"And did you consider that an insult?" demanded the judge.

"Naw, sorr," said O'Shaughnessy. "Oi t'ought it was a gross betrayal uv confidence, sorr."—Harper's Weekly.

Duty.

Duty is a power which rises with us in the morning and goes to rest with us at night. It is coextensive with the action of our intelligence. It is the shadow which cleaves to us, go where we will, and which only leaves us when we leave the light of life.—Gladstone.

Predestination.

Ted—You know money is your best friend. Ned—Yes, and the trouble is that the best of friends must part.—Judge.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free. F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio.

MILLERSBURG ITEMS.

The foot ball team of the M. M. I. is probably one of the best lightweight teams in the Blue Grass, weighing a scant 135 pounds, they have twice met teams from 10 to 20 pounds more to the man and so far their goal line has never been crossed, a record which every man is trying to keep up. The best material for years presented itself this fall and this combined with some of the best men of last year's team made the outlook seem especially promising.

Just now the team is much handicapped from the lack of a coach, owing to the resignation of Captain Henderson who had charge, but every man has pledged his best efforts and they intend to make this season a successful one by themselves. The fact that the team is captained by Cadet Gentry, one of the best players M. M. I. has ever known, is largely responsible for their success. He seems to manage the team more easily and be able to get more out of the men than the average captain.

McClure at center plays a fine game, always sending the ball to the right spot and making splendid interference. The two guards, Hertel and Oldham, are always in the game and play fine ball both when on the offensive and defensive. Blackburn at tackle plays a strong game and made unusual gains in the game with Georgetown. Of Gentry, the other tackle, enough has been said to show that his playing is excellent in every way. Kash and Wigglesworth on the ends are as good a pair as there is on the team. Their interference is masterful and their work on the defense is without a par. Behind the lines the splendid pair of backs, Rice and Wigglesworth, "are there with the goods" in every sense of the word but their work is not superior to Harris at full, who plays a fine game. And now last but by no means least, we come to the brains of the team, Miller, the quarterback, who at all times displays keen judgment in directing the plays and who is wonderfully quick, making sensational gains whenever he runs with the ball.

Following is the complete schedule for the rest of the season: October 30—Cynthiana at Cynthiana; November 6—T. S. S. at Nicholasville; November 25—Frankfort at Millersburg; November 30—Frankfort at Frankfort.

Mrs. J. T. Jefferson is improving slowly.

Mrs. Mollie Gray, who has been quite ill, is some better.

Cadet Chenault, of the M. M. I., was taken seriously ill Thursday night with appendicitis. He was taken to St. Joseph Hospital at Lexington Friday morning by Dr. C. B. Smith and Col. C. M. Best, where he underwent an operation Friday afternoon by Dr. Barrow, of Lexington. He is doing nicely.

Mrs. E. M. Thompson was in Lexington Monday.

Mr. E. B. Current, of Lexington, was here on business Saturday.

Mr. Ellis Baldwin visited relatives in Maysville from Saturday till Monday.

Mrs. J. C. Leer returned Friday after a ten days' sojourn at Martinsville, Ind.

Mr. and Mrs. U. S. G. Pepper attended the funeral of Mrs. Daniels at Paris Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Mason and son, Mr. Thos. Mason, are visiting relatives in Mason county.

Mrs. Rule, of Cincinnati, is the guest of her nieces, Mesdames Margaret Powell and G. M. Hill.

Mr. J. G. Lynch, county manager of the Bourbon Home Telephone Co., was here on business yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. K. B. Hutchings, of Lexington, arrived Thursday as guests of her mother, Mrs. Belle Taylor.

Miss Bessie Purnell, of Paris, was the guest of her mother, Mrs. Mattie Purnell at M. M. I. from Saturday till Monday.

The lady members of the M. F. C. faculty constituted an automobile party which took in quite a number of Kentucky towns Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sheeler are guests of their son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. William Sheeler, at Ford, from Saturday until Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie ShROUT returned Thursday from their bridal trip to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Carpenter, and left Monday for their home at Owingsville.

Dr. F. W. Troy, of the First Christian church, attended the brotherhood meeting of the church at Lexington Friday and banquet at the Phoenix Hotel Friday night.

Protracted meeting began at the Presbyterian church Sunday morning. It will be conducted through the week by the pastor, Rev. R. S. Sanders. Services every evening at 7:15 o'clock.

The Sunday school of the Christian church will entertain the members of the congregation with a Halloween party tonight in the rooms over Ingles Bros.' store, recently vacated by T. T. Bentley and family.

The faculty and students of the Millersburg Female College were treated to quite a surprise during the chapel exercises yesterday morning when Mrs. H. H. Phillips, of Winchester, on behalf of Mrs. S. D. Trueheart, of Nashville, Tenn., presented the institution with a handsome book case containing a rare selection of books from Mrs. Trueheart's library. Among the number are two illustrated volumes of Shakespeare, which are highly valued. A number of rare geological specimens were included in the gift. Mrs. Trueheart was formerly lady principal of this institution and since giving up that position to accept the presidency of the National Board of Missions of the Methodist church has manifested great interest in the welfare of the College. A life size portrait of Mrs. Trueheart which now hangs in the chapel was unveiled on alumni day, during the commencement last year to perpetuate her name in the institution.

Vice President G. C. Fisher, of the M. F. C., was the guest of his brother, Mr. C. C. Fisher, Jr., at Kentucky Wesleyan College at Winchester last week.

I will give a nice rocking chair for the best ten ears of corn, any color, the corn to be on display at my store. Premium to be awarded December 1.

JOEL W. MOCK.

There will be a recital in the M. F. C. chapel Saturday night by the pupils in music and Mrs. Walker's class of expression. Please bear in mind that the date is Saturday night instead of Friday night as was first announced.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Craig and little daughter, McLona, of Mt. Olivet, were guests of their brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Aaron McConnell, Saturday and Sunday. They were accompanied home by their sister, Miss Margaret McConnell, after a two weeks' visit here.

THEATRICAL.

"LITTLE MISS FIX-IT."

The real important theatrical event of the season is on at the Lexington Opera House tonight. Eva Tanguay, recognized as the highest salaried vaudeville star of international importance, is appearing in the latest musical comedy "Little Miss Fix-It," with all its excellence of cast and elaborate stage setting that was seen for three months in New York City and for the entire summer past in Chicago.

About once in a decade, a new musical play, comes around so full of "catchy" songs and witty dialogue that everybody declares it the "best thing of the sort." Such a piece according to the verdict of the western and eastern metropolis, is "Little Miss Fix-It" in which the famous Eva Tanguay has scored the hit of her career.

This attraction glories in two other extraordinary novelties. The first is Miss Tanguay's specialty that will be presented in its entirety, the same as is seen in every important city in the United States, and for which she receives the enormous salary of $3,500 weekly. There will be no matinee this afternoon as has been previously advertised.

Mrs. Mark's Will Probated.

The will of Mrs. Sena Mark was probated in the county court Thursday. The will provides for the payment of the just debts and funeral expenses of the deceased. Mrs. Mark leaves the residence of the estate, consisting of two houses and lots on Mt. Airy avenue and all of her personal property to her two daughters, Mrs. Jas. Rye, of this city, and Mrs. Martha Crump, of Nicholas county. Judge Denis Dundon appointed Mr. James Rye as administrator of the estate. Messrs. W. H. Johnson, L. B. Purnell and James Daugherty were the appraisers of the estate.

Seeks to Recover Child.

Habeas corpus proceedings against Frank Bedford, a prominent Bourbon farmer, instituted by Henry Hamilton, of this county, to recover his child adopted by Mr. Bedford from the Orphans' Home at Louisville, will come up for a hearing in the county court this morning.

In his petition Hamilton alleges Bedford is not a suitable person to care for the child, which four years ago was trusted to the care of the orphanage. Soon afterwards Mr. Bedford adopted the child which has since been under his care.

Talbot & Whitley will represent Mr. Bedford in the trial of the case this morning. Attorneys Hutchcraft and Williams will represent Mr. Hamilton while Hon. E. M. Dickson has been retained by the officials of the Orphans' Home.

DEATHS.

—Mrs. Eliza H. Daniel, aged 58 years, died at her home, "New Forest," near this city on the Maysville pike Saturday afternoon after a long illness of tuberculosis.

Mrs. Daniel was the widow of C. J. Daniel, who died May 1, 1910, since which time her health has rapidly declined. She is survived by three children, Miss Sallie Daniel and Messrs. Woodford C. and Holt Daniel, all of whom were at the bedside of their mother when the end came. She is also survived by a brother, Mr. Hildreth Prather, of Montgomery county.

The funeral services were held at the residence Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock and were conducted by Elder J. T. Sharrard. Burial was in the Paris cemetery. The pallbearers were Messrs. Sidney G. Clay, James McClure, U. S. G. Pepper, J. H. Haggard, Charles Ball and Geo. W. Wyatt Sr.

Mr. William Henry Selected.

The selection of a young man to be educated for the ministry by the Bible class of Mrs. Carey E. Morgan, which has been in contemplation for some time, was made Sunday when it was decided to bestow the honor on Mr. Wm. Henry, of this county. Mr. Henry is about twenty years of age and united with the Christian church about six months ago. He entered Transylvania University yesterday.

Stole Automobile.

Fred Cooper and Louis Barlow, of Carlisle, arrested in this city Saturday by Patrolman Chas. Thopas, were taken back to that city yesterday by Chief of Police J. H. Myers to face a charge of grand larceny entered against them by Wm. Cooper, of that city.

Fred Cooper and Barlow came to Paris Saturday in company with another man, who is said to have larceny to bring him to Paris in an automobile. When the party arrived in this city and after coming through the bridge on East Main the driver ran the machine into the jail wall.

A telephone message to the officials here caused the arrest of Cooper and Barlow, who it is alleged stole the machine and came to Paris. In the collision the front axle was bent, the fender broken and the automobile damaged to a great extent otherwise.

Resolutions

Adopted by a rising vote of the congregation of the First Presbyterian Church of Paris, Ky., Oct. 22, 1911:

Inasmuch as our faithful friend and co-laborer, Mrs. Anna E. Massie, has departed this life and gone to her eternal reward in heaven, therefore, be it

Resolved, that we, the congregation of this church assembled, express our great sorrow in that we shall see her face no more and be no more associated with her in the work and service of our Master on earth; and that we have sustained a great loss in the death of this beloved sister, who was so devoted to the church and kingdom of her dear Lord, and who manifested that devotion by her faithful attendance upon the public services of the church, her thoughtful attention to the convenience and attractiveness of its house of worship, her substantial support of its work, and by the large and generous bequests she made to her local church, and to the general benevolent work of the Assembly. For all of which this church desires to express its grateful appreciation, its sincere and prayerful interest in her only child, Mr. William C. Massie, and to acknowledge its profound thanks to God for his constraining love, which is over and in us all. Be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be given to the press for publication, and that a copy be furnished the son of our deceased friend.

Resolutions

Adopted by a rising vote of the Presbyterian Church, of Paris, Ky., Oct. 22, 1911.

Inasmuch as our devoted brother and associate in the work and Kingdom of our God, Mr. Robert J. Neely, has departed this life and gone to his eternal rest in heaven, therefore, be it

Resolved, That we, the congregation of this church assembled, express our great sorrow in that which we shall see him no more and no more be "laborers together" in His Kingdom on earth, and that we have sustained a great loss in the death of this beloved brother, who loved his church, and who gave expression to that love in his attendance upon its public worship, his loyalty and devotion to its pastors, his deep interest in all that pertained to its welfare, and his generous gifts and bequests made to its support and work. For which this congregation desires to express its grateful appreciation, with the full assurance of its tender love and prayerful sympathy for his beloved wife, who remains with us as our faithful and substantial friend and helper. Be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be given to the press for publication, and that a copy be furnished the family of our deceased friend.

Resolutions

Adopted by a rising vote of the congregation of the First Presbyterian Church of Paris, Ky., Oct. 22, 1911:

Whereas, In the all-wise providence of God, the Rev. Henry Martyn Scudder, D. D., of Carlisle, Ky., was called to his eternal reward in glory, on the thirtieth day of September, 1911, and

Whereas, He was easily one of the most prominent and influential ministers of our Synod, if not of our whole church, and he was the beloved and revered pastor of two of our near neighbor churches for a whole half century, and a most valued and trusted friend; and adviser of many of our choicest and most substantial members, and a wise, loving and confidential friend of our pastors through all these years. Therefore, be it

Resolved, That we deem it highly proper that we, the congregation of this church, express our deep sorrow in the death of this great man and father in Israel; that we are keenly conscious of having lost an able, influential, wise and sympathetic friend, and that we desire to convey to the nearer friends and loved ones of this beloved man, the assurance that we share with them in this their irreparable loss, also our tender sympathy and love to his beloved daughter and grandson, who survive. Be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be given to the press for publication, and that a copy be furnished the family of our deceased friend.

Barnett Drafted.

A blow to Paris freedom was struck yesterday when President Bacon announced that John Barnett, the initial sacker of the Paris club had been drafted by the Prestonburg club of the West Virginia League, a class C organization. Barnett has been a member of the Paris club for three years and played an important part in the winning of two pennants. While his friends here are glad he is taking a step upward it is felt that his position at first on the Paris team will be a hard one to fill.

Planning Rally.

The missionary societies of the various churches are planning to have a Union Missionary Rally on November 17 at the Methodist church.

Bold Thief Raids Corn Crib.

After breaking the lock on a corn crib in the barn of M. J. Murphy on East High street Sunday night a bold thief made away with several sacks of corn, and in an effort to catch the thief Mr. Murphy called on Capt. V. K. Mullikin, of Lexington, who came over with his bloodhounds, but the dogs failed to catch the criminal.

For several weeks Mr. Murphy has been missing corn from his crib, and is of the opinion the thief or thieves in that length of time have stolen upwards of forty bushels of the grain. Patrolman Link, who about a week ago was successful in capturing two negroes who had been taking feed from the stable of J. U. Boardman, has been keeping a close watch around the premises of Mr. Murphy, but Sunday night illness prevented his going on duty.

Capt. Mullikin, with his two hounds, arrived here yesterday morning on the 9 o'clock car and took the dogs to the scene of the robbery. The dogs took a trail which led from stable through the open lot adjoining the city hall and to the old rock quarry in the rear of the residence of Mrs. Lizzie Walker, across the lot adjoining to a point near the Overby tobacco barn where the trail was lost.
